

His own observation, the most glaring descriptions for at short of the realities his own eyes had witnessed.

He then introduced Mr. Smith, who arose and in plain matter briefly told his story, assuring the audience that he had always hated Slavery, and had taken great pleasure in helping many out of it, and though he had suffered much physically and pecuniarily for the cause's sake, yet he murmured not but rejoiced in what he had done.

After taking his seat, addresses were further made by the Rev. S. Smith, Messrs. Kinnard, Branner, Bradway and others.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, We, the colored citizens of Philadelphia, having among us Samuel A. Smith, who was incarcerated over seven years in the Richmond Penitentiary, for doing an act that was entirely in his feelings and his sense of justice and humanity therefore

Resolved, That we welcome him to the city as a martyr to the cause of Freedom.

Resolved, That we heartily tender him our gratitude for the good he has done to our suffering race.

Resolved, That we sympathize with him in his losses and sufferings in the cause of the poor & wronged slave. W. S.

FREEMONT MEETING.—A large and spirited gathering for Freedom and Free-trade took place at North Corners on Thursday evening, over which Esquire Cloyce acted as orator, presided.

The veteran Jos. Quincy has sent $30 to the Young-American Fremont Club of Boston, to aid in defraying the expenses of the same.
